Mass-Meeting

It Rained—Democrats Poured—Old Time Mass-Meeting Tactics Employed

An old time Mass-Meeting of Democrats was held here Saturday to elect eight delegates to the Norfolk Convention which meets on June 11th.

The leaders of the organization urged their friends to be on hand at 1 o'clock, hour and one-half ahead of the meeting hour. The courthouse was crammed and at the hour of 2:30 p.m., chairman L. F. Ferguson called the meeting to order and it was immediately adjourned to the court green, where ropes were stretched and the crowd divided. As the organization crowd armed the voters under the ropes some amusing scenes were enacted—attempts were made to separate husbands and wives.

S. L. Ferguson nominates R. L. Burke as chairman of the meeting and W. B. Caldwell nominated A. H. Clement. Vote was taken and evidently carried by large majority in favor of Mr. Burke, but Mr. Ferguson, who voted in the affirmative demanded a division over the protest of Mr. Clement who said a division was unnecessary, upon Mr. Ferguson's insistence tellers counted the crowd and reported 490 to 160. Mr. Clement hopes he got the worth of his money.

Then Mr. Burke thanked his friends for the honor and Mr. Clement asked that he be recognized, but was twice ruled out of order amid much confusion and noise, but he insisted that if it be a Democratic meeting he would be heard, and he and his friends demanded fair treatment and a hearing, and Mr. Clement spoke when the crowd was at fever heat and the sheriff and his deputies were busy trying to hold down the contending factions. Mr. Clement asked that the election of Mr. Burke be made unanimous.

S. L. Ferguson then presented the following list of 32 delegates with one-fourth vote each which were elected by viva voce vote: S. L. Ferguson, Colonel Joseph Button, J. R. Horsley, J. W. Flood, C. W. Smith, R. L. Burke, H. W. McKinney, L. F. Ferguson, Miss M. Anna Jones, Mrs. W. T. Steele, Mrs. Alic U. Sears, Miss Nettie Moser, Professor D. N. Davidson, D. A. Comer, W. F. Woolfolk, J. W. Carter, H. T. Williams, W. D. Brown, J. A. Bingham, L. N. Ligon, H. G. Johnson, R. W. Jamerson, H. C. Pulliam, Fletcher T. Guill, N. R. Featherston, H. V. Spencer, M. L. Garrett, Don Moses, J. H. O'Brien, T. A. Drinkard, J. A. Garrett, E. LeRoy Smith".

Those who attend are empowered to cast the entire vote of the delegation, and each delegate may appoint its own alternate.

Mr. Clement then nominated the following as delegates with one-half vote each:

A. H. Clement, E. M. Drinkard, D. N. Twyman, A. R. Harwood, Mrs. R. C. Wagner, J. T. Coleman, Wilson Hix, S. P. Loving, Mrs. T. L. Christian, Hon A. B. Thornhill, R. H. Lucado, Dr. D. A. Christian, Mrs. W. B. Caldwell, C. T. Moses, J. W. Cawthorn, Jr., S. J. Lee.

ENDORSE SENATOR GLASS

W. B. Caldwell offered the following resolution:

We recognize the high character and statesmanship of Senator Carter Glass, and hereby heartily endorse him for president of the United States, and instruct our delegates to vote for such instructions in the state convention.

Colonel Joel W. Flood offered the following substitute, which was accepted by Mr. Caldwell and adopted:

"Whereas, the name of the distinguished junior senator of Virginia, Hon Carter Glass will be presented to the national convention for nomination as the standard bearer of the Democratic party for president, and

"Whereas recognizing in him a statesman of unusual ability and national reputation, won by his signal service as congressman, secretary of the treasury and United States senator, who through his efforts has so re-modeled our banking system as to make our country safe from panics and who enjoys the confidence and personal esteem of our late lamented President, Woodrow Wilson, and believing him eminently qualified in every respect for the highest honor in the gift of the people.

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Democrats of Appomattox county, in mass-meeting assembled this the 24th day of May, 1924, that we heartily endorse Hon. Carter Glass for nomination as the Democratic standard bearer, for the office of president of these United States, and hereby instruct the delegates elected by this mass-meeting to the state convention in Norfolk, to vote and work for a delegation to the national convention instructed for Senator Glass for president,

TUCKER ENDORSED

C. T. Moses, offered the following resolution, the acoption of which was moved by Colonel Flood, and was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That we heartily endorse the course of our representative in congress, the Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, and pledge him our hearty support and cooperation for re-election."

The meeting adjourned and no clashes were had and the crowd breathed easier. Both sides believing that each had won some kind of a victory, but all admitting that the old organization by work got out their friends and that the faction opposing them stayed at home until the storm was over, and allowed a victory to go to the organization by default. The organization is to be congratulated for the splendid showing it made, if indeed it did not cost too much. In the meantime let those who stayed at home resolve to be on hand when the count comes again.

The only Republicans found in the meeting were those voting on the side of the organization.

"Be Sure This Time!"
When you are getting ready to have your house painted, it is important to remember that there are two essentials for every perfect job of painting—a good surface and reliable paint.
The time spent in thoroughly cleaning and preparing the surface to be painted will be repaid many times over in the added years of wear that can be expected from a paint applied under proper conditions. Hanna's Green Seal Paint goes furthest.
G. Hanna's Green Seal Paint answers every purpose—the Formula is on the package. It looks best and wears longest.
G. When it's time to think of painting—think of Hanna. Remember the famous Green Seal—for 36 years the standard.

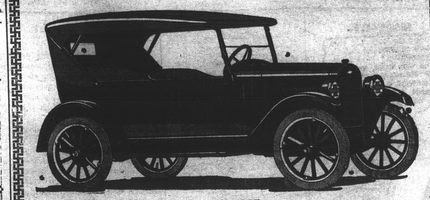
Health Insurance for the Whole Family



CHEVROLET
Without counting the daily utility of a Chevrolet for going back and forth to work, shopping or taking the children to school, etc., its value in saving doctor's bills, broadening your mental horizon and keeping the whole family physically fit, amounts to more than the cost of the car and its upkeep. It is more of an essential to the modern family than anything else but a home. Chevrolet meets the requirements of the modern family because it is economical to buy and maintain, because of its excellent appearance and riding comfort, because it can be depended upon, and because it is so easy to drive that any member of the family can use it.

THE BABYLONIAN EXILE OF JUDAH

LESSON TEXT—II Chron. 36:11-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."—Prov. 14:34.
PRIMARY TOPIC—What a Boy May Do.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Destruction of Jerusalem.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Last Days of Jerusalem.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Nation in Ruins.

I. The Sins of the Nation (vv. 11-16).

1. Zedekiah, the King (vv. 11-13).

(1) Insubordination to God's prophet (v. 12). In the theocratic government of Israel God's prophet occupied a higher place than the king himself. The prophet was God's messenger. Instead of receiving Jeremiah as God's messenger and conforming his life to God's will, as made known by the prophet he refused to humble himself before God.

(2) Rebellion against Nebuchadnezzar (v. 13). Zedekiah was made king of Judah by the king of Babylon but, in spite of this kindness and the word of the Lord spoken to him by Jeremiah (Jer. 38:17, 18; 52:3), he rebelled against the king of Babylon.

(3) He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against God (v. 13). Those who rebel against rightly constituted authority soon are resisting the will and grace of God.

2. The Priests and People (vv. 14-16).

(1) They followed the heathen (v. 14). Even the priests who ministered in the house of God were practicing the sins of the heathen nations surrounding them.

(2) They polluted the house of the Lord (v. 14). The house of the Lord was sacred, having been dedicated to the Lord and consecrated to His service. For priests to officiate while living lives of impurity was pollution to God's house.

(3) They mocked God's messengers (v. 16). Instead of receiving them as from God, they mocked them.

(4) They despised God's word (v. 16). To set at naught God's counsel is to despise His word (Prov. 1:25).

(5) Misused God's prophets (v. 16). They not only mocked them but imprisoned some and slew others. This they persisted in until God could no longer restrain His wrath.

II. The Judgment Falls (vv. 17-21).

1. Slaughter by the Sword (v. 17). In severe did this judgment fall that the King of the Chaldees slew young men even in the house of the sanctuary and "had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or him that stooped for age."

2. The Treasures and Sacred Vessels Carried to Babylon (v. 18). This included, not only the treasures of the house of the Lord, but of the king and his princes.

3. Burned the House of God (v. 19). This was the sacred temple built by Solomon with certain additions and modifications.

4. Broke Down the Walls of Jerusalem (v. 19). The aim in this was to render the walls useless as a means of defense.

5. Burned the Palaces (v. 19). It would seem that the common houses were left for the poor people who remained in the land.

6. Destroyed All the Goodly Vessels (v. 19). This would mean that the palaces were plundered of all that was valuable.

7. Carried the People Into Captivity and Made Slaves of Them (v. 20). Those who had escaped the sword were now carried away and enslaved. It would seem that a number of people had deserted to the Babylonians. From II Kings 25:12 we learn that the poorest of the people were left in the land. Those who would not likely make any trouble were left as vinedressers and husbandmen. Since the custom was to colonize conquered territory by foreign peoples, the object in leaving the poor people was that the country might be ready and over these people Gedaliah was appointed with headquarters at Mizpeh. When the walls were broken Zedekiah fled by night, his object being doubtless to cross the Jordan at Jericho and hide in the mountains east of Jordan. He was overtaken in the plains of Jericho (II Kings 26:5) by the Chaldean army. He was captured and taken to the king of Babylon who was at Riblah, a town north of Damascus. Zedekiah was tried before Nebuchadnezzar, his eyes were put out, he was bound with fetters of brass, and carried away to Babylon, where he remained a prisoner until the day of his death (Jer. 52:11).
